

Tolerance of those of a different faith & beliefs

Northumberland PRU offers a culturally rich and diverse community where difference is valued. Through our curriculum and daily routines, we strive to demonstrate tolerance which helps everyone become good citizens of the future.

Assemblies highlight a range of moral issues, current affairs and real life dilemma's so that pupils can explore and reflect on their personal responses

The RE/morning registration curriculum covers all the major religions

Resources, activities and special events are planned which show a balanced and tolerant approach to different beliefs

The day to day ethos and expectations of the school ensure constant reminders of the importance of tolerance
